A DATE IN HISTORY

In an editorial analysis of "1933—A Date in History," the magazine "Business Week" reminds us that "within the 12 months, the stream of American business shivered to its all-time low-water mark. For one agonizing interval, one of its most important tributaries ceased to flow at all. America learned a new and grimly ironical use of the word 'holiday.' Then, under energetic leadership and with a war time spirit of unity, revival began. We are still deep in economic depression, God knows, but the worst is behind us."

This publication, which keeps in close touch with the facts of business conditions, then interprets "two things in the mind of America."

"One is that unbridled rapacity must henceforth be held in check. Greed cannot longer be allowed full play in our economic life. There were few traffic laws when motorists piled the roads, but the automobile had to be regulated. Likewise untrammeled individualism was tolerable in a simpler day, but, given the modern industrial machine and the modern bank money system to drive it, it is intolerable. The wheels are too many, too costly, too lethal."

"The second is that there can be no real prosperity for all of us so long as any large group among us does not share in it."

"These are not new ideas, but it is a new thing to have them generally accepted. They are the basic ideas behind NRA, which sets minimum standards of hours and wages in industry and attempts to make decent rates for competition."

The broad program for recovery may have seemed confusing, some of the specific measures may have appeared in the early stages contradictory, yet there "is emerging a clear design" and above all, "the significance of 1933 is that it was the year in which we began seriously to try to do something about it."

Seasonal Buying

THERE is a wide spread in winter between the prices of fresh and canned vegetables. So why not take advantage of the lower prices of canned foods in comparison to fresh and buy more canned foods in winter than you do in summer? This offers a seasonal opportunity to economize. One good way to do this is to combine fresh and canned vegetables in the same dish. They go perfectly well together as you will find out if you try one of the following recipes:

Mashed Mixed Vegetables: Simmer the contents of an 11-ounce can diced carrots for a few minutes, and drain. Boil five medium potatoes, and drain. Cut three medium onions in dice, boil and drain. Combine the three hot vegetables, mash thoroughly, season with salt, pepper, two tablespoons butter and two or three tablespoons cream, or enough to season. Beat fluffy with a fork, and serve hot. Serves eight.

An Appetizing Dish

Mixed Vegetable Appetizer: Chill separately the contents of an 8-ounce can diced carrots, an 8-ounce can diced beets, one-third cup diced celery, and one-third cup diced cucumber; drain off any juice and toss lightly together. Fill small cocktail glasses or cup-shaped lettuce leaves with this mixture. Beat one-half cup cream, add one-half cup chili sauce, one tablespoon mayonnaise, one tablespoon capers and a few grains of salt. Have very cold. Pile this sauce on top of vegetables. Serves eight.

The following new students have enrolled in the freshman class: Berlin Day of Dehart, Walter Short of Index, Flossie Patrick of West Liberty, and Wendell Brailley of Bluffs.

We hope Elvora Faulkner will soon be able to return to school.

The following new students enrolled in the sophomore class: Evelyn Davis of Winchester, Anna City Lucy of Lexington, Hubert McIntire of Matthew.

The following new students enrolled in the senior class: Mrs. Lola Patrick May and Fred Blanton, from Prockett high school.

Frank Soward has been accepted as a student in the Berea academy for the coming semester, beginning Jan. 30. We will miss Frank but we are glad that he has been successful in getting into Berea.

Group 3 of the Dramatic club will present a short play entitled "The Matrimonial Agency" in chapel Friday morning. The cast includes Helen Owens, Christine Adams, Lillian Wells, Leon Bradley, Ansel Fugitt, Sherman McKenzie, Wick McKenzie, Alvin Fannin.

The total enrollment in Mrs. Turner's room is 47.

Elizabeth Adkins of White Oak enrolled in Mrs. Turner's room Monday. We are glad to welcome her to our class.

Hubert Lykins, Charles Lykins, Norman Potter, and Jimmie May have entered the second grade in Mrs. Fannin's room.

New pupils enrolled this semester in Miss Keeton's room are Thelma Lewis, Lawrence Byrd, and Zella Short. James Cuskey enrolled three weeks ago.

Hershel Patrick, Junior Brown, and Ralph Boone Faulkner have returned to Miss Keeton's room after several days' absence.

Glad Brown, Marion Fugate, Marie Cantrell, and Helen Elam are absent this week from Miss Keeton's room in account of illness.

Herbert May has moved to Wells. We are sorry to lose him from the fifth grade.

The following pupils of the fourth and fifth grades are on the honor roll for the fourth month: Elizabeth Nell Cleveland, Betty Arnett, Dolores Elton, Mabel Murray, Betty Jean Nickell, Harriet Geary, Marion Fugate, Clifford Littell, Dewey Potter, Arnold Tyler, and Clay Walton.

Basketball

Friday night West Liberty won over the Prockett first team 21-19. The second team lost to Prockett by 13-24. Come out and help our boys to victory.

The main attraction was the House of David bearded boys. The independent lost to them by a score of 29-57. The West Liberty boys seemed to have been over-confident, and for this reason they lost.

The eighth grade had only one absence during the fourth month. Mildred Murray of the eighth grade was an honor roll pupil each month of the first semester.

The pupils of the eighth grade are very interested in their work on booklets illustrating the poems of "The Building of the Ship" and "Snowbound."

The total enrollment of Miss McKenzie's room is 43. We have five new pupils enrolled in the third grade: Gene Reed, Maggie Reed, Wallace Hall, Alfred Potter, Lawrence Lykins. Miss McKenzie's room is giving a farewell party Wednesday afternoon for Rater Montgomery, who is moving Thursday to Hardburly.

Quarterly Conference

The second quarterly conference of the Methodist church will be held Friday evening at 5:30 at the parsonage. This is a very important occasion and all members are urged to attend. Dr. Moore, the preacher, has been invited to preach at the courthouse Saturday night, also preach in the Methodist church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. One is invited to attend.

FOR BETTER MAIL SERVICE

The mail service between Jackson and West Liberty as at present operated is out of joint.

Jackson, located on the L. & N. railroad, is a historic mail outlet for West Liberty, and it will perhaps always remain so.

When the mail and passenger service of the O. & K. railroad between Jackson and Index was discontinued some months ago, a star route mail was established between these two points. At that time there was a regular daily mail service between West Liberty and Index, which took care of mail out-bound from West Liberty. This mail was discontinued when train mail service stopped, with the idea that the mail route from Mt. Sterling to West Liberty would take care of mail out-bound. So indeed it would if the Jackson to Index driver were required to wait at Index and receive mail for his territory originating at West Liberty or in territory for which West Liberty is the outlet.

The logical terminal for the Jackson to Index route is not Index but West Liberty, and less confusion and waste motion would prevail if this were arranged. The only alternative seemingly is to hold the Jackson-Index driver at Index until the Mt. Sterling-West Liberty driver arrives and the mails have been changed. To hold West Liberty out-bound mail for Jackson territory 2 1/2 hours at a point only three miles away is surely not in keeping with Uncle Sam's mail policy. Nor is it necessary.

SEWING CIRCLE MEETS

Canuel City, Jan. 16. The Church of God Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Chalmers Beaton on Friday, Jan. 12. The meeting was opened by singing "Where the Gates Swing Forward Never." The scripture lesson, the ninth Psalm, was read by the president, Mrs. W. T. Stamper. Mrs. J. C. Terrell led in prayer. The secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Ferguson, called the roll.

Present were Mrs. J. W. Beaton, Mrs. Louie Patrick, Mrs. J. C. Terrell, Mrs. Sarah Collinsworth, Mrs. Elizabeth Beaton, Mrs. Lillie Nickell, Mrs. Ada Beaton, Mrs. Bessie Lykins, Mrs. Stella Beaton, Mrs. W. T. Stamper, Miss Geneva Collinsworth, Miss Dora Beaton, and Miss Helen Patrick.

The hostess served homemade candy and all reported an enjoyable time. The society adjourned to meet with Mrs. J. W. Beaton on Jan. 24.

AMERICA'S BIGGEST TAX

Between 1921 and 1926, but 1 1/2 percent of all persons arrested for felonies were convicted and sentenced. Only 150 out of 50,000 tried for crimes were found guilty.

Crime costs Uncle Sam $3,000,000 daily. The burden upon the taxpayer is enormous and nothing constructive comes of it. When every man, woman, and child in the country pays 45 cents daily each for crime, it becomes a personal matter. Even if invisible, it is our biggest single tax item.

This is not merely a problem for the police and the courts, but the public officials may be lax, but they are usually as alert as public opinion.

We read at the deficiencies of our elected officers. And stay at home on election day!—Los Angeles Times.

Home from Trip

Mrs. Bessie Lykins of Canuel City recently returned home after a visit with her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Stacy, and family, of Tipton. Mrs. Lykins and Mrs. Stacy went for a visit among relatives and friends at Ashland, and also visited their relatives, Mrs. J. H. Lovely and family, at Fort Gay, W. Va. To make a happy Christmas for Mrs. Lykins, her daughters, Venus Rouse and Mrs. Russell Bailey, of Ashland, came for the holiday week. Mrs. Lykins reports a lively and enjoyable visit with a beautiful table of good eats all the time of her stay.

MORGAN GIRL BRIDE

Poster, Ohio, Jan. 15. Miss Thelma Walsh and Walter Henderson were quietly married at the home of Rev. E. Testerman, here, on Saturday evening, Jan. 13.

The bride is the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Josh Walsh of Morrow and the groom is a young business man of Lebanon, Ohio. Mr. Walsh came to Ohio from Morgan county, near West Liberty.

The young couple went to their home in Lebanon rejoicing as all newly-married folks do.

SPENDING FOR WAR

A nation that is going ten billion dollars into debt in one year certainly is going somewhere at a prodigious rate. Some of the people at Washington think we are heading straight for recovery, and others think we are plunging down a steep place into the sea.

Before the rest of us give way either to encouragement or to fright, it would pay us to stop and figure just what the implications of this thing called spending are.

The first thing one thinks of is the World War. We spent at a greater rate than this during the war, and we kept it up longer, and we came out of it without cringing under the strain.

Furthermore, there is not the slightest doubt that, if we were at war today, sums of this size would be voted without any misgivings at all.

That being so, why not compare our present situation to a war time crisis? The comparison is a perfectly proper one.

What is at stake in a war? National existence itself may be at stake—that was not the case with us in the World War, nor in the war with Spain. Money, national honor, national dignity, intangible considerations that look large or small, depending on how you look at them, these were the things that went into the balance when we got into our last war.

What is at stake now?

Well, a lot of things; our faith in our form of government and our social structure, our belief in ourselves, our dream of democracy and our vision of destiny, the happiness and comfort of many millions of people; a total far greater than anything we risked by going to war with Germany.

If it was proper to spend at an unheard of rate to beat the Kaiser, is it not infinitely more proper to spend at an equal rate today to save the things which all Americans hold most dear?

There is still another angle to it. The money we spent in 1917 and 1918 was spent for purposes of destruction. When we got thru, we had nothing to show for it.

A shell that has exploded, a ship that has gone to the bottom, a man who has been turned into a corpse—these are not, in any economy, dividend producing items. They are what our billions bought in the World War.

Today we are spending to build things. We are building highways and bridges and dams and towns and homes; we are spending to strengthen banks and railroads and farms and factories; we are spending to make men and women and children strong and healthy and courageous. We shall have all these things after the spending is over.

Can any American doubt that these possessions will make stupider the task of paying back what we are borrowing?—Ashland Independent.

College Extension Work

James T. Gillen, a graduate of the Methodist state teachers' college, and one of the teachers sent out by that college on a CWA project, will meet persons interested in college work at the high school auditorium at West Liberty on Monday, January 22, at 9 o'clock a.m. for the purpose of organizing classes to be conducted during the following six weeks. The course is intended for persons who have finished high school and who are not employed and not attending college. Tuition is free and the course will carry regular college credits.

Sebastian Entertains

W. H. Sebastian had charge of the program given the Ashland Rotary club Monday evening at the Henry Clay hotel. The Ashland Independent says: "A number of musical quips on members, humorous anecdotes, several classical selections, 'Old Black Joe' in a large variety of tempos, and finally a demonstration of playing with his feet were included. It was a demonstration of musical versatility seldom seen. Mr. Sebastian was applauded to the echo by his audience."

REVIVAL MEETING

The Weeks Brothers revival services will come to a close Sunday night.

Much interest is being shown, and there have been three conversions. Everybody is invited to come out and take part in the services for the few remaining nights. If you like good sermons and inspiring song services, if you want to give a helping hand to the work, now is your time. Next week will be too late. Come now to help and to be helped.

RE-EMPLOYMENT SITUATION

Putting men to work in Morgan county is not such an easy task as one who has not tried it would be inclined to believe.

In the first place the county quota is so low that it will scarcely take care of half of the needy and deserving workers. A ruling was secured from Federal Administrator Hopkins on Monday of this week allowing the working of men on CWA projects in shifts under what is known as the "stagger" system in certain rural areas of Kentucky. If Mr. Wilcox, the state administrator, will extend this privilege to Morgan county, it will help materially to set things in better shape here.

The reemployment committee works under instructions from the state office at Louisville and in all cases is bound by their rulings. The comparative qualifications of applicants for work is a constant source of concern with the committee. The present work projects in the county will be completed about February 15 and new projects will probably be arranged for about that time, probably providing work for the same quota of men as are now at work.

The weekly pay roll for the county is about $7,420. In addition there is a weekly direct relief disbursement of about $3,500. This money is in the form of a government check and is keeping cold and hungry out of many Morgan county homes. The reemployment committee is anxious to cover more homes with this same protection.

GROSS

Beverly Gross was born July 31, 1909, and died January 12, 1934.

Our community was greatly shocked on last Friday afternoon when the funeral of Beverly Gross in the town of Ashland, Ky. in the Ashland cemetery. Beverly Gross was the son of James Elam and the daughter of Mr. Elam had been very intimate with Oscar Elam and frequently worked at the Elam place. He had taken Mr. Elam's gun from the house and gone to the barn and shot himself. Kind hands brought him at once to the office of Dr. Wolf, and his folks who live on a long branch, were sent for. He died in a short time and the body was taken to the home of his mother as soon as the highest was held.

It seemed that Beverly had been under a mental strain and all day Friday he was pained. He became very despondent and decided to end it all. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to his mother and six brothers.

The deceased was the son of the late George Gross and Sarah Ellen Gross. R. V. L. J. Soud or old services at the house Saturday afternoon and again Sunday morning as the family requested. Interment was in the Elam cemetery on Spaw Creek.

THORNSBURY

Mrs. Lizzie Thornsberry, of near Sandy Hook died at her home Tuesday, Jan. 9, 1934, aged 81 years.

Mrs. Thornsberry was formerly Miss Lizzie Steele of this county and was well known to our people. Her brother, Frank Steele, is still a resident of West Liberty. Another brother, Marshall Steele, lives at Morehead. She also leaves four sons and one daughter.

Tom Adams of Spaw Creek, nephew of the deceased, T. H. Caskey, and Mrs. Caskey, her niece, of this place, attended the funeral Friday.

Mrs. Thornsberry was quite active and in good health within three days of her death. She was a sweet Christian character, making everyone she knew her friend, was the great thing in attendance Friday testified.

COUNTY COURT MONDAY

The first regular county court day under County Judge W. A. Caskey will be held Monday of next week.

A county budget has been worked out by Judge Caskey, assisted by C. M. Keyser and D. R. Keeton.

Arrangements are going forward to have a complete audit made of the county's financial status as of Jan. 1, 1934.

Ladies' Aid Meets

The Ladies' Aid met Thursday with Mrs. Lulu Arnett. Present were Misses Mosiere Walsh and Josephine McIntire, Mrs. Charles Keyser, Mrs. Geo. Sparlock, Mrs. Gardner Sparlock, Mrs. Ollie McClain, Mrs. Oscar McKenzie, and Mrs. Cox McIntire. The hostess served delicious pie and hot chocolate.

Tobacco Cut Campaign

The tobacco cut campaign in Morgan county has started with a drive. M. E. Vaughn, representing the agricultural extension service, is in the county to carry out the campaign. This is the most important proposition that faces the farmers of Morgan county and every farmer should make investigation into it at once.

Mr. Vaughn states that the work in Morgan county is nearly one month behind and that every farmer must do his part to catch up. In order to help rush the matter along Mr. Vaughn will hold meetings at various points in the county during the next week.

The meeting dates are as follows: Ecot, Friday morning Jan. 19, at 9 o'clock (this week).

Saturday all day at courthouse, West Liberty.

West Liberty, courthouse, all day Monday, Jan. 22.

Wrightley, Tuesday morning Jan. 23, West Liberty, courthouse Wednesday, Jan. 24.

Lenox, Thursday morning Jan. 25, White Oak, Friday morning, Jan. 26, West Liberty, courthouse, Saturday, Jan. 27.

The county organization committee consists of Dr. Watson, Cassie Kelly Nickell, Grassy, Clifford Murphy, Ed; I. I. Todd, Wrightley, T. A. Brown, Blaz, D. M. Caskey, Lacey, Boone Howard, White Oak; John Howard, Tones Branch; L. B. Reed, West Liberty.

JUNIOR ORDER MEETING

The regular meeting of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics held at the regular meeting place on Monday night was a particularly interesting one.

Among other matters, arrangements were made for a trip to Ashland, with a bunch of candidates for degree work. The degree team of the Ashland club has won national fame and the local council's team is not beyond the school age.

Several new officers were installed and the council is now offered by a full crew.

In the general discussion which followed the regular order of business Brother Preston of the Hazel Green council, Past State Councilor J. D. Hunter, Rev. Harlan Murphy, Councilor W. L. Murray, Norman Gillett, Lucian B. Reed, F. S. Brown, and others participated.

Lax the Bladder With Juniper Oil, Buchu, Etc.

Drive out the impurities and excess acids that cause irritation, burning and frequent desire. Juniper oil is pleasant to take in the form of BUCKETS, the bladder laxative, also containing Buchu leaves, etc. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Get a 25c box from any drug store. After four days if not relieved of "getting up nights" go back and get your money. If you are bothered with backache or leg pains caused from bladder disorders you are bound to feel better after this cleansing and you get your regular sleep. Arnett Drug Co. says BUCKETS is a best seller.—Adv.
